Wilhelm Goedecke and his wife Anna immigrated to the USA from Germany in 1897. They lived in Manfred Township. They had five children, Gustav, Fred (Fritz), Minnie, Elsie and Willie. Their children attended school in Manfred.

Their son William entered the service November 11, 1918, as WWI was ending, but the signing of the armistice brought a halt to the training of all recruits and he was mustered out of the service.
